

Mr. Fahari Marwa is a Tanzanian citizen, a senior agricultural economist with over 20 years of experience in a wide range of knowledge in various aspects of agriculture and food security. He is currently, the Head of Agriculture and Food Security Department at the East African Community (EAC) Secretariat at the capacity of Principal Agricultural Economist since June 2017.

Prior to this position, Mr. Marwa was the Principal Inspection Officer at the Tea Board of Tanzania and previously served as a Programme Analyst at the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) - Tanzania Representation Office, before joined FAO, Mr. Marwa served as an Agronomist at the Alliance One Tobacco Tanzania Ltd.

His areas of specialization are Agricultural Economics and Agribusiness and Agricultural Extension and Education. He has a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Education and Extension and MBA Agribusiness both from Sokoine University of Agriculture in Morogoro, United Republic of Tanzania.