

Mr. Mikiya SAITO

Director General,
Economic Development Department,
Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Mr. Mikiya SAITO has been working at JICA since 1996. He is currently Director General of Economic Development Department, in charge of agriculture, fishery, livestock, rural development, and private sector development. On the operation side, he has been involved mainly in the field of industrial development, rural development, private sector development, and experienced overseas assignments at JICA Indonesia and Thailand offices. On the managerial side, he has engaged in organizational planning/management, internal control, and DX promotion.

His recent roles include Senior Deputy Director General of General Affairs Department (2022 – 2025), Head of Digital Transformation and Science, Technology and Information (2020 – 2022), Deputy Director General of Private Sector Partnership and Finance Department (2017 – 2020), Senior Representative of Indonesia Office (2014 – 2017), and Director of Industry and Trade Development, Industrial Development and Public Policy Department (2011 – 2014).

He holds a master degree in Development Studies from the London School of Economics and Political Science, UK (2004), a master degree in Development Economics from the Manchester University, UK (2003), and a master degree in Mechanical Engineering (Industrial and Management System Engineering) from Waseda University, Japan (1996).