

Prof. Hiroshi Kato

Vice President, International University of Japan

Hiroshi is Vice President and Professor, the Graduate School of International Relations at The International University of Japan (IUJ).

Prior to assuming his current position in 2019, he was Senior Vice-President of the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) in charge of Sub-Saharan African affairs for 6 years (2013-2019).

He graduated from the University of Tokyo in 1978 and earned a master's degree from the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, in 1988. His research interests include international development, foreign aid, and African development.