

Mr. Hiroyoshi Noro
CEO, DIVIC Corp.

Hiroyoshi, founder and CEO of DIVIC Corp., launched a programming school in 2015 to help aspiring professionals without engineering backgrounds become software engineers. After earning an MBA from GLOBIS University, he joined Works Applications through their Problem-Solving Ability Program. Recognizing the global shortage of tech talent, he expanded DPro's mission to deliver IT education and job opportunities worldwide.

Since 2017, he has led engineer training programs in Rwanda and has supported the careers of over 1,000 IT professionals in Japan. In 2020, he received the GLOBIS Alumni Award for Innovation.
