

Dr. James Kaizuka

Research Fellow, JICA Ogata Research Institute

James is a Research Fellow at the JICA Ogata Sadako Research Institute for Peace and Development, and he is currently conducting research about the ABE Initiative and its impacts. He graduated from the University of Leeds in the UK.

James' work focuses on the impacts of the ABE Initiative in Egypt, Kenya, Rwanda and South Africa, and he has conducted fieldwork with ex-participants, JICA staff, and Japanese companies based in these four countries. He will publish a research report through JICA later this year on the findings of his research.
