

Ms. Mariko Kitahama

Assistant Manager, International Cooperation Business Department of NEC

Mariko is an Assistant Manager in International Development Aid & Africa Group, International Cooperation Business Department at NEC Corporation, where she collaborates with international stakeholders to develop solutions for social issues.

After joining NEC Corporation in 2014, she was responsible for African market at the Europe, Middle East, and Africa Department at NEC HQ. From 2019 to 2022, she was assigned to business development at NEC Africa Nairobi office in Kenya, where she engaged in projects focused on creating safer societies in collaboration with the Japanese Government and international organizations. In March 2022, she returned to NEC HQ.