

INADA Kyosuke

Director General for Sustainability Management, JICA

Over 30 years of experience in infrastructure and environmental financing working for Japan's international development agency. Currently serves as Director General for Sustainability Management, overseeing organization-wide mainstreaming of sustainability related issues (climate/Paris alignment, nature, and other ESG aspects), both for operation and corporate. Past assignments include, Chief Representative for Europe based in Paris, Senior Deputy Director General of Africa Department, member of the Digital Transformation Taskforce, Senior Director and head of India Division, Deputy Chief of Myanmar Office, Director of Climate Change Office, Deputy Director of Corporate Finance Department, Representative of PRC Office in Beijing. Obtained BA Economics, Keio University, Japan, MSc in Environmental Change and Management, University of Oxford, UK, and studied Chinese language at Peking University, PRC.