

Ms. Emiko Munakata

Representative, Equal Net Sendai

After the Great East Japan Earthquake, she has engaged in research and support activities at evacuation centers and temporary housing, as well as capacity building of local communities on disaster risk reduction, particularly female leaders. For a gender-equal society, she works to “communicate,” “disseminate,” and “propose” on the themes of all aspects of life.